

Communists Have to Pull Out of Congo

By LYNN HEINZLERING

LEOPOLDVILLE, (The Congo) (AP)—The Soviets and their Red colleagues "glumly" cleaned house today and got ready to pull out of the Congo, their bid to exploit the infant African national apparently ended in a fizzle.

With the whereabouts of their puppet, Patrice Lumumba a mystery and with Col. Joseph Mobutu, the new army strongman, apparently in the saddle, the Communists had until nightfall to quit the Congo.

The Soviets already have begun their withdrawal. Three carloads of Soviet officials left the embassy building Friday night and other cars stood in the courtyard crammed with luggage.

Correspondent for the Soviet news agency Tass said the embassy had received a formal request from President Joseph Kasavubu to leave the country. Mobutu had announced Wednesday he was giving the Communists 48 hours to leave.

Papers were burned in the courtyard of the Czech Embassy and workmen nailed covers on big wooden crates.

It appeared to be the end of the ambitious Communist program. The Soviets and their allies had been pouring in men and equipment to aid Lumumba in his power struggle against Kasavubu. Their actions set off a dispute in the United Nations, which has been trying to restore order in the chaotic nation.

There has been no word of Lumumba's whereabouts since Congolese troops arrested 20 members of his personal staff Friday at the premier's luxury villa. Reports spread that Lumumba had been nabbed at a hideout in town.

(The Belgian radio said Lumumba left his Leopoldville residence under protection of U.N. Gungun troops. It said he was taken to a hiding place but gave no other details.)

Admiral Is Charged for Smuggling

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The newly-retired admiral and his wife returned from Guam to a $10,000 home in suburban Kentfield, and authorities said they each declared a gallon of tax-free liquor as allowed.

Wednesday the government charged Rear Adm. William L. Erdmann, 57, a much decorated former Navy commander at Guam, smuggled home 42 cases (504 bottles) of choice tax-free liquor.

"It's news to me," the Annapolis graduate said of the indictment.

"I can't comment at this time, but I suppose I'll have my inning in court."

His first inning came when he posted $1,000 bail. The second comes Sept. 23 when he appears for comment later Wednesday.

U.S. Atty. Donald Constine said the liquor was bought at the Navy officers mess on Guam at reduced tax-free prices.

He said it was shipped in a metal container—labeled "household goods"—on the carrier Bonhomme Richard from Guam to San Francisco.

New Head at A&M College

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—Dr. Claude Babin, professor of history at Arkansas A. & M. College and a faculty member since 1954, has been named acting dean in charge of faculty and instruction, in an administrative reorganization at the college.

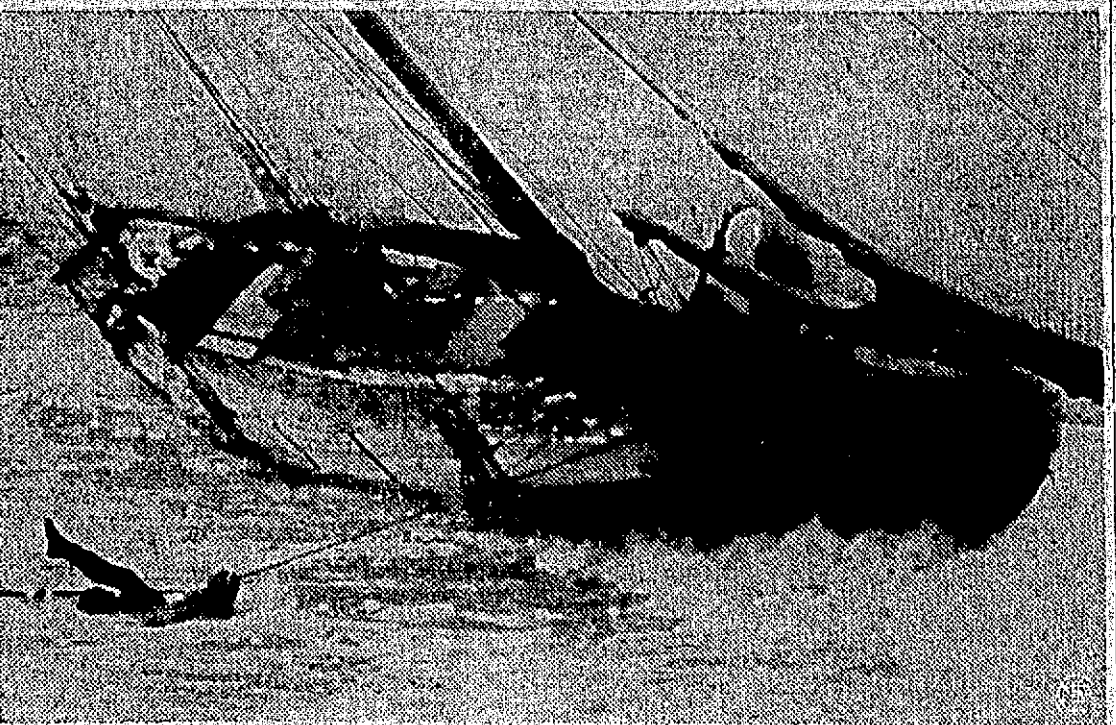

C. R. Teeter, who has been acting dean during the reorganization period, was named to the newly-created position of dean of personnel. His job will be concerned with counseling and student welfare.

Lee Reeves will continue as director of public relations, and Mrs. Dudo Neville McCloud, formerly of North Texas State College, has assumed her new job as director of the news service of the college.

President Jack W. Mears announced the changes Thursday after they had been approved by the Board of Trustees.

Says Money Can't Solve All Problems

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—A Little Rock finance expert told small business owners and bankers yesterday that they must look beyond money to solve their business problems.

"Few business problems are ever solved by money alone," said Henry W. Russell of a Little Rock financial management concern.

"Money is not the mysterious witch doctor remedy that so many businessmen believe."

He spoke to 140 businessmen, bankers, consultants and observers at an industrial expansion conference at Winrock Farm on Petit Jean Mountain near here.

In addition to money, Russell said, factors contributing to the growth of small business are sound management, trained personnel, new equipment, added space and new lines of communication.

The conference was the first of its kind in the United States.

It was sponsored jointly by the University of Arkansas and the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce, the First Arkansas Development Corp., the Small Business Administration and the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

The AIDC held a short meeting but took no action.

Winthrop Rockefeller, AIDC chairman, who was host to the meeting, told the group, "We think this is a unique approach to a problem common to all of us."

No More Bus Segregation at Memphis

MEMPHIS, (AP)—The bus company has announced it no longer will concern itself with segregated seating but police stood ready today to arrest Negroes who sat in "white" seats.

Four Negroes were arrested Thursday night on charges of disorderly conduct after taking seats at the front of buses. In segregated seating, Negroes sat at the rear.

The four arrests came after the Memphis Transit Co. announced that its drivers would no longer try to maintain segregated seating. The announcement said the policy had been in effect since Monday with no disturbances.

In one of the arrests, a bus driver was listed as the complainant. In the other three, police listed white passengers as prosecutors.

A legal fight over segregated seating on Memphis buses has been dragging on for years.

A three-judge federal court recently refused to rule on the subject until the state Supreme Court had clarified a technical point raised by the city.

17 Public Areas on Beaver Reservoir

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A recreational plan calling for 17 public use areas—six of them with commercial boat docks—has been outlined for Beaver Reservoir in Northwest Arkansas.

Donham Sworn in as Chancellor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Ted Donham, 59, of Benton was sworn in today as chancellor of the 15th District.

Donham, an attorney and retired Internal Revenue Service official, will serve until January in the unexpired term of F. D. Goza of Malvern who died Sept. 9.

He was appointed by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Deficit in Crawford Co. Records

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A routine audit of the Crawford County records shows an $8,213.45 deficit in Treasurer Ormer E. Fears of Van Buren, an auditor says.

Aubrey McCasland, director of the County Audit Division of the state comptroller's office, said Thursday Fears has not replied to requests for an explanation of the shortage.

McCasland said his agency found that not all of the county's receipts were being deposited in the county's official depositories.

"We have asked Mr. Fears to explain," McCasland said, "but he hasn't done so to date."

Fears told newsmen Thursday night he had no comment on the situation.

Fears resigned Sept. 1, while the audit was in progress, McCasland said.

McCasland said unless the money is restored, he will ask state Comptroller L. A. Mashburn to ask Fears' surety agent to make good the shortage.

A copy of the audit was furnished to Prosecuting Atty. J. H. Evans of Booneville, McCasland said.

Some Notes Taken by Defectors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department said today some handwritten briefing notes available to the two American code clerks who defected to the Soviet Union are missing.

J. Vincent Burke Jr., Defense Department general counsel, gave that testimony as the first witness in a House Armed Services subcommittee investigation of the defection of the clerks, Berron F. Mitchell and William H. Martin.

The two clerks defected in July via Mexico and Cuba and turned up in Moscow in early September with a denunciation of their own country.

Burke told the committee, meeting in closed session, that there is no evidence at this point that Martin and Mitchell were part of an espionage ring or that they had an accomplice or accomplices here or elsewhere.

The subcommittee is investigating the circumstances of the run-out of the pair, as well as the adequacy of the security clearance systems of the various secret agencies.

Kennedy Tries to Woo Votes Denied Demos

By JACK BELL

With Kennedy in Pennsylvania (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy hit hard on the economic issue today as he campaigned across Pennsylvania for 32 vital electoral votes denied the Democrats since Franklin D. Roosevelt's 1944 fourth term drive.

The presidential nominee was expected to lay down in appearance at Lebanon, Reading, Lancaster, York and other state points on his way to a Baltimore, Md., night speech, this pledge: That the Democrats intend to see to it that "everybody who wants to work in America has the opportunity to work and at decent wages."

This was what Kennedy was supposed to say Thursday night on a statewide television appearance, but didn't. Instead, he threw his prepared speech into the air and said "what he said."

He said Vice President Richard M. Nixon's slogan that "You never had it so good."

Kennedy said that in Pennsylvania, the home of big steel, 335,000 men and women were unemployed last month and one out of every 14 workers was "actively seeking a job and unable to find it."

"I know we can do better," he said. "This is not 1932. We are not moving back."

"I cannot believe that a country which is faced with so many challenges at home and abroad cannot meet the problem of full employment so that our people can find work when they want it."

What Kennedy left out of his prepared address—and it has become a habit with him to ignore these advanced texts—was a declaration that full employment has become "a dead letter under the Republicans."

Pierre Salinger, the candidate's press secretary, said that Kennedy stands behind any prepared texts, issued in advance to newsmen.

Thursday was a big day for Kennedy. His crowds at various way points on a 110-mile motorcade from Jersey City to Trenton, N.J. were compared by Maj. Arthur Capella, a veteran of the New Jersey State Police, to those that Franklin D. Roosevelt used command.

Gov. Robert B. Meyner told reporters that he had seen nothing like it in his campaigning, dating back to 1952.

New Jersey ranks fourth in the number of Catholics among its voters. Sharp evidence of the interest in his candidacy was furnished by the turnout of flag-waving parochial school students in such areas as Paterson, where about half of all of the city's students attend Catholic schools.

But in other areas of New Jersey Kennedy had it as good. Almost everywhere he went the crowds pressed in on him, defying police attempts to guard him. A majority of the members of the throngs were women.

Mild Temperature for Grid Game

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fair skies, a light wind and mild temperature are forecast for Little Rock at 8 p.m. Saturday, kickoff time for the Arkansas-Oklahoma State football game.

The Weather Bureau issued this official football forecast today: Clear to partly cloudy with a light southeasterly wind and temperature near 70.

A light wind is from one to seven miles per hour, not strong enough to affect football play.

Cuba Strikes Back at U. S. for Restrictions

By RICHARD VALERIANI

HAVANA (AP)—The Castro regime today struck back at a U.S. travel ban on the boarded prime minister while at the U.N. General Assembly in New York by restricting American ambassador Philip Bonsal in Havana.

Foreign Minister Raul Roa told Bonsal he was restricted to the Havana sector where the embassy is located and to going to and from his residence about five miles away.

In other fast developments: 1. Armed militiamen seized three American-owned banks operating on the island.

2. An attractive blonde U.S. Embassy secretary who had been held by Cuban secret police for 40 hours on spy charges was released. She was picked up Thursday in a raid on her apartment after police had arrested three other Americans on undisclosed charges.

In a note to Bonsal, Roa said the restriction action against the U.S. envoy was taken because of "the arbitrary confinement imposed by North American authorities on the activities" of Prime Minister Fidel Castro in New York.

The Vedado section of Havana, to which Bonsal was restricted during Castro's proposed stay in New York, is about a 10-square-mile area along the sea.

Roa told Bonsal he would have to take "the usual route" to and from the embassy residence. He added sarcastically that the restrictions were inspired "by the plan to offer your excellency every kind of security."

The latest move came as Castro prepared to leave for the General Assembly to charge the United States with what he calls economic aggressions against his regime.

The latest seizure represented the takeover of all American banks on the island. The U. S. Embassy was notified by American banking sources that intervenors, apparently from the Cuban National Bank, had begun taking over all branches of the First National City Bank of New York, the First National Bank of Boston and the Chase Manhattan Bank. Financial sources estimated reserves and undivided profits of the American banks at $5 million to $6 million with assets and liabilities.

That Bread Baking Contest at 3rd District Show to Bring Back Old Memories

By Mary Anita Loseter

Brace yourselves, fellows! Pretty soon a tantalizing aroma will come your way to whet your appetite as only the indescribable scent of home baked bread can do.

That is, if you are lucky and have a wife, mother, or sweetheart who is entering the yeast bread baking contest at the fair next week in Hope.

The vast of fresh bread from the kitchen will probably attract you, but when you see those loaves or rolls cooling on the kitchen table—hands off! Chances are those delectable goodies are for the yeast bread baking competition at the Fair Grounds, September 21.

Any woman in Hempstead County may enter, and all are asked to bring their yeast products to the Skeleland Building at the show grounds by 10:00 a.m. on September 21. They will be judged that same day, as the entry will not have to be held overnight. Women entering this activity will need to bring a loaf of bread, a full size sweet bread, or six rolls. They should be wrapped and sealed in plastic wrap or bags, or waxed paper.

There will be no need for pre-registration, so you can enter at the last moment, if you wish. However, you will more than likely need more than a moment to make the yeast product. Judges of the entries will be Miss Dorothy Price, District Home Demonstration Agent, and Miss Melba Doyle of the Arkansas Power and Light Company.

A special culinary award being offered this year by the fair is the Best-of-Show Yeast Baking award contributed by Standard Brands Inc., makers of Fleischmann's Yeast. Competition will be rather keen, and all yeast products will be judged together with the three winners to receive $5 for first prize, $3 for second prize, and $2 for third prize.

Good news is the fact that most women like to practice bread baking before actually entering their bread and rolls. This means that you men can act as preliminary judges—and tasters—before fair time. Judging points are such things as symmetry of shape, tenderness of crust, volume, uniform browning, plus flavor, tenderness, fineness and uniformity of crumb.

As a matter of fact, some men have been known to give yeast bread baking a try themselves—with surprisingly good results.

All of which may mean that the women fair bread bakers better look to their laurels.

U. S. Gives Full Support to UN Head

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States declared today the paramount issue before the Security Council is whether or not to support the Congo role of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld and on that there can be no compromise.

The new U.S. declaration dimmed hopes of finding a formula which might avert a threatened Soviet veto and thus prevent the chaotic Congo situation from being lost to an emergency session of the 12-nation General Assembly.

U.S. Ambassador James W. Bureo addressed the 11-nation Security Council after Sir Claude Corea of Ceylon had asserted that both the United States and the Soviet Union had the same objectives on the Congo problem. Corea urged that they find a united approach.

Diplomats expressed the belief that the United States would propose and get an emergency assembly if the Soviet Union vetoes a U.S. resolution endorsing the policies of the secretary-general in the Congo.

Corea's appeal for a compromise was interpreted as meaning that private efforts by himself and Tunisian Ambassador Mongi Slim had failed. He suggested that his own plan for a Congo good-offices committee be accepted by the United States and the Soviet Union as part of their rival resolutions.

Delegates expected the Soviets to veto the U.S. resolution. They predicted 3rd graf 113-1a36

Ike Has Part of Annual Checkup

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower completed the first installment of his yearly medical checkup at Walter Reed Army Hospital today and prepared to motor to his Maryland mountain retreat for the weekend.

The President entered the hospital Thursday night and spent the morning getting what the White House called a completely routine physical examination.

Mrs. Eisenhower arranged to lunch with him at the hospital before setting out with him for Camp David in the Catoctin Mountains. There the President will work on his speech next Thursday to the United Nations General Assembly.

Although Eisenhower remained at the hospital longer than had been expected, Press Secretary James C. Hagerty emphasized to reporters that there was "nothing extraordinary, nothing out of the ordinary" about the examinations.

Eisenhower has appeared to be in fine health recently but has not had a full examination since last Oct. 31 when Walter Reed doctors found him in "excellent" condition except for a persistent bronchitis.

Says Negro Veterans Hampered

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Veterans Committee today submits to the government a survey showing that Negro servicemen are subjected to racial discrimination, though their post life is well integrated.

The AVC said it had studied the matter at 42 defense and Veterans Administration installations in 14 states, both North and South. The report contained these findings:

1. While northern VA hospitals and regional offices are completely integrated, it found practically no Negro veterans in white collar jobs in Southern VA offices.

2. Southern Negro veterans were too discouraged by economic discrimination to apply for GI home, farm and business loans.

3. Negro veterans were unable to use their GI on-the-job training opportunities because no decent jobs are available to Negroes in the South and not many in the North.

The AVC, which says it has 29,000 members, made the survey public Thursday. AVC officials are urged to submit it today to Senator Whittier Chambers, administration.

Emergency Meet Called After Red Veto

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The 12-nation General Assembly was summoned today for an emergency session on the Congo problem after a Soviet veto blocked action in the Security Council.

The meeting will be convened at 6 p.m. EDT tonight, three days before the scheduled opening of the regular session with its star cast of top-level leaders.

The United States requested the meeting in a demand made in the early morning hours as the 11-nation council would open three days of futile debates in which Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld was attacked by the Soviets and defended by the West.

The move was triggered by a Soviet veto of a resolution sponsoring Hammarskjöld's go-ahead on his Congo policies and urging that no military aid be sent to the Congo except through the United Nations. It was the 10th veto by the Soviet Union.

The vote was 12 to 2—the Soviet Union being joined by Poland and France abstaining.

Ambassador James J. Wadsworth, U. S. chief delegate, took the floor.

"The Soviet Union," he said, "has just shown the lengths to which it will go in opposition to effective United Nations assistance for the Republic of the Congo."

He then proposed formally that the council act under the 1950 "Uniting for Peace" resolution to call an emergency Assembly meeting. "The vote on this also was 12-2 with France abstaining. At this time the veto did not apply. Any seven members of the council may summon an emergency assembly if the council is stymied by a veto."

Diplomatic sources said the Assembly will meet four or five hours tonight, all day Sunday and, perhaps Monday in an effort to complete its work before the Tuesday morning opening of the regular session.

Fulbright to Return to Washington

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sen. J.W. Fulbright (D-Ark) leaves Arkansas today for Washington where he plans to take an active role in the John Kennedy-Lyndon Johnson presidential campaign.

Fulbright, chairman of the influential Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he did not know what job he will be assigned in the Kennedy organization.

"I have been asked to join a group of campaign workers who will operate out of Washington," he said. "I don't know exactly what is planned until I reach Washington. Some of the work may turn out to be speeches."

Fulbright participated in a Kennedy campaign rally at Texarkana earlier this week. This is expected to be the Democratic presidential nominee's only visit to Arkansas before the election.

Discussing foreign affairs in an interview, Fulbright said he does not approve the administration's decision to restrict Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev to Manhattan Island while Khrushchev is acting as a delegate to the United Nations.

"The restrictions serve no good purpose other than to show our I'm not sure of the right word here," Fulbright said. "Irritation is not strong enough. We're angry, we're upset, we're mad. I regret that the great nations are in the position of insulting one another. As much as I disapprove of Khrushchev and what he stands for, I think the restrictions are unwise."

Plane Piloted by Arkansan Missing

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — A Navy A-1H Skyraider piloted by Lt. (jg.) James A. Wood, 27, of Eureka Springs, Ark., is reported missing from Moffett Field. Navy planes and surface craft searched the Pacific 60 miles west of here for the missing bomber.

Confessions of Newspaper Columnist

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Confessions of a columnist.

Seventeen years ago a strange thing happened to me. I became a newspaper columnist.

For nearly a year before that I had been a simple barefoot war reporter, covering the battles in North Africa and Sicily.

But just before we hit the shell-whaling beaches below Salerno in Italy, I was ordered to start turning out a daily feature on the combat soldier's life in the front.

To become a Biswell of the GI and, in effect, the poor man's Ernie Pyle.

Looking back now across the years of semiprocure, I realize that a war for all its boredom, fear and danger of death, is a reporter's dream assignment—for two reasons.

1. In the raw, bloody drama of the battlefield, men show themselves as they truly are, and you never run out of things really worth writing about.

2. You have a ready-made audience. The people back home are desperately eager for every scrap of information you can give them about their men in far-off actions.

But victory quickly dissipates the national unity forged in war. In peace men go back to their goals. It becomes difficult for a writer to find themes of common interest to all.

I had the same trouble getting back to normal life as millions of GIs did. It took me a year of traveling around the world after 1945 to get my column out of uniform and into civilian life.

For some reason many readers are interested in a newspaper columnist's job, perhaps because they believe it to be more glamorous, romantic and exciting than it really is.

In a moment of deep insight, Don Marquis, who wrote a daily column before he repented and became a playwright, described this odd occupation best. He said it was like "digging a daily grave."

This is because the torture of trying to find a fairly fresh idea every 24 hours haunts all columnists eventually.

The greatest reward of columning isn't a penthouse apartment, a chauffeur-driven car, or chummy weekends on the golf course with "President" Eisenhower because "he doesn't usually enjoy a golf well-timed 'pin' laying the time of my life, and if he would, he wouldn't suddenly run out of people, I hope to go right on having human heart has a story worthing it.

Bishop Deported From S. Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—The Anglican bishop of Johannesburg, the Rev. Ambrose Reeves, was deported from South Africa by air today.

Reeves, a frequent outspoken critic of South African government racial segregation policies, had returned to Johannesburg Saturday after an absence of three months in England. He had gone to England because he said he feared arrest.

Grain Elevator Operator Killed

JARRISBURG, Ark. (AP)—J. B. McEwen, 31, a Harrisburg grain elevator operator, was killed Monday night when his pickup truck overturned on State Highway 11, about eight miles south of here.

State Police said McEwen who was alone in the vehicle, apparently missed a curve.

Six Students Die in Wreck

RIDGELY, W. Va. (AP)—A car carrying six high school students from their homes in a small farming community to a 24-hour meeting Monday night smashed head-on into a trailer truck killing all of them outright.

James Seyoc, 16, the only boy, was the driver. He had gotten his license only two months ago. The dead girls were identified as Shelia Ann Miller, 16; Phyllis Miller, 15; Linda Smith, 14; Lynda Thompson, 15; and Judy Morris, 13.

Million Americans Suffer Arthritis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nearly 11 million Americans suffer from arthritis or rheumatism, about 1,223,000 of them severely enough to spend one or more days a week in bed, the Public Health Service said today.

A new report said 750,000 spend at least seven days out of each year in bed, and others much longer periods.

The findings came from a survey conducted among 73,000 households all over the country from July 1957 to June 1959.

telling if you take the trouble to find it out. And a columnist's contacts with people are a continual rollcall of surprise, refreshment and pure joy.

Let others mine for gold in the ground. He finds a finer gold in people.

So, on the 17th anniversary of the day I started "digging" daily grave, I don't send condolences or a get-well card. I'm laying the time of my life, and if the world doesn't suddenly run out of people, I hope to go right on having human heart has a story worthing it.

Yerger Band Mothers' Club News

A membership drive is in the process of being launched by the band mothers. They need your presence and our financial support.

With the cooperation and support of the fine citizens of Hope and surrounding areas, they were able to purchase new uniforms for the band last school term, at a cost of approximately $2600.00. They made, at the time of order, a down payment of $1,000.00, and on September 15, 1960, they wrote a check to the First National Bank of Hope, in the amount of $500.00, on account. They still have a good way to go.

Their funds are raised by concessions at football, basketball games, socials at the gym, and your personal donations. Won't you answer the urgent call of the band mothers by either joining the club and making a donation to them? These are our children who benefit from the efforts the mothers.

The club meets on the first and third Wednesday nights of each month. The regular meeting will be held Wednesday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the band building. Won't you plan now to be present.

bilities of many times that amount. Militiamen also were seen entering the Trust Company of Cuba, a Cuban-owned bank, Canadian said their banks were untouched.

It was not immediately clear on whose orders the militiamen acted in taking over the American banks. But the action duplicated the pattern of recent months of the government takeover of three American-owned rubber companies.

opening arguments for Ervin's murder trial Wednesday. Bonner said the prosecution expects to prove that the child went to the Ervin home July 6, 1959, presumably to visit his wife, Kathy, who had gone to Kingman, Ariz. Bonner said the girl was killed while her mother stood outside Ervin's house calling for her.

Ervin, 21-year-old fry cook, was arrested several days after the crime. The girl's parents now live in Fort Smith, Ark.

When to Fish or Hunt

Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours there after. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

Whosoever Will may come to Church may come to God...

IF A

every hour

...should be everybody's theme song. Time is a graph or chart which measures what we are. We have no time to kill. "Whosoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," Eccles. 9:10. Constantly strive to be a better father, mother, husband, wife, son, daughter... a better church member. There is always a friend or neighbor less fortunate than you. "He that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin," James 4:17. If you have had a kindness shown, pass it on; 'twas not meant for you alone... pass it on.

ABOVE ALL, "every hour" is God's gift. Wasting time is wasting God's Bounty. Keep on killing time and time will kill you. "Every man must give an account of himself to God," Romans 14:12. Spend your spare time at home, at Church or on errands of mercy... "I Need Thee Every Hour."
